Creating Spaces of Experience –DRIVE BY LEARNING - -21-6-2012

Let you thoughts flow, have a look out of the window, have a look at the others, let your mind wonder, let curiosity take the better of you Go out of context and into the context of our projectget your imagination on "creating", "spaces", "expererience", on their educational benefit for disadvantaged groups. Use this attentiveness and mindfulness in order to write down the things that come first to you mind, while travelling to a (surely) unknown place
