

Grundtvig Learning Partnership 2010-2012 CSE-Creating Spaces of Experience

EU WAREHOUSE-team, learning diary Tübingen (7th-11th of March 2012)

...needless to say that the warmth and hospitality of the team training team is unbeatable! So much care in the preparation, so much consideration for the project partner team to make us feel welcome!

We thought – not for the first time, that Tübingen is a perfect surrounding for a European meeting, it is so soaked with history and it is so beautiful, and not too big, so that you get a “homey” feeling very easily!

We really appreciated the team training idea, to go and look for learning spaces. This goes so much “back to the roots” of the whole Grundtvig idea, It touched me personally deeply, as I remember walking through Brussels one evening a long time ago with Annerose Walter after a European seminar – and we got totally carried away by the possibilities Grundtvig seemed to offer (the programme had just been launched). We found a learning possibility in every corner and stone and bus stop. How exciting to go back to the origin of Grundtvig in Tübingen and look for learning spaces and develop offers! A truly fantastic idea and a very creative setting for a European meeting.

The whole project team has also grown very strongly together, we are in the right “form” now to continue more European endeavors together.

The very thankful and inspired EU WAREHOUSE Tübingen team!
